

Qualifiers for Navratna Ahmedabad today

Ahmedabad Mirror Bureau
am.sports@indiatimes.com

The newest addition to the city's golfing landmark is all set for its maiden tournament when 100 amateurs will vie for a place in the Navratna Ahmedabad team.

Designed by the legendary golfer Jack Nicklaus' Nicklaus Design, Kalhaar Blues and Greens is up for its first test as the city team for the Louis Philippe Cup is getting ready to form a squad.

The top three amateurs will play for Navratna Ahmedabad team along with three Professional Golf Tour of India regulars, Mithun Perera from Sri Lanka, Vinod Kumar and Vikrant Chopra. Incidentally, top-ranked

Pranav Shah, Devang Shah with project manager Terry Bohannon at the course

Shamim Khan, Harendra P Gupta and Vikrant were earlier named as the professionals for the team.

While Shamim will now play for Delhi, Harendra will contest from the Chandigarh side. Located, at Sanand Kalhaar Blues & Greens is one of the longest golf courses in India.