

Team spirit key to our success

Vikrant Chopra

For any sportsman, confidence and positive attitude are the key ingredients to success. On the field, it hardly matters if you are a proven superstar or an underdog in your sport. What matters is how much belief and faith you have in your abilities and how willing you are to go that extra mile for that top stand on the podium.

At the inaugural Rs 1.24 crore Louis Philippe Cup, the IPL version of golf, played at the KGA course in Bengaluru last March, the Navratna Ahmedabad team entered the event as underdogs as we didn't have a marquee golfer in our team. Despite that, due to our unmatched team spirit and moral support from our team owners, Devang and Pranav ha Singh, Jyoti Randhawa, Anirban Lahiri, Gaganjeet Bhullar and others.

The win helped boost our confidence as all three of us had a super season last year: Mithun Perera won two tournaments, Vinod Kumar also won a PGTI Players' Championship at Aamby Valley, and I have been quite consistent too.

Although neither myself, Vinod or Mithun are based in Ahmedabad, we have established a strong connection with golfing fans in the city through a couple of major events we

Online Coverage: golfcommune.com

Shah of Navratna, we went on to win the top prize of Rs 36 lakhs despite the star-studded line-up of teams which included the likes of Jeev Milk-

have attended at the Jack Nicklaus-designed Kalhaar Blues and Greens course—our home away from home! (RN GOLF MANAGEMENT)